Case No. 4:20-cv-01613-HSG

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR LITIGATION INVOLVING HIGHLY SENSITIVE CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION

Action Filed: March 4, 2020

1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Defendants believe that disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve
 3 production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from 4 public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be
 5 warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following
 6 Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket
 7 protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public
 8 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential
 9 treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in 10 Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential
 11 information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 12 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 13 seal.

14 2. DEFINITIONS

15 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 16 information or items under this Order.

17 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 18 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of 19 Civil Procedure 26(c).

20 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well 21 as their support staff).

22 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it
 23 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 24 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

25 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium 26 or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.
 27

2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who (1) has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action, (2) is not a past or current employee of a Party or of a Party's competitor, and (3) at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or of a Party's competitor.

2.7 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Information or Items: extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items," disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means.

2.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

2.11 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as "CONFIDENTIAL," or as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. To the extent it is practical to do so, the Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of

1 material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of 2 the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not
3 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

4 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown
5 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily
6 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 7 other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

8 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 9 protection do not qualify for protection at all or do not qualify for the level of protection initially 10 asserted, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the 11 mistaken designation.

12 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, 13 e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or 14 Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated 15 before the material is disclosed or produced.

16 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

17 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding 18 transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the 19 legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" to 20 each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
21 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., 22 by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of 23 protection being asserted.

24 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection
25 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it
26 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material
27 made available for inspection shall be deemed "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS'

1 EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and 2 produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for 3 protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party
4 must affix the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
5 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”) to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or 6 portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 7 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must 8 specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted.

9 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 10 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 11 proceeding, all protected testimony and specify the level of protection being asserted. When it is 12 impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection and it
13 appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Designating Party
14 may invoke on the record (before the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding is concluded) a right 15 to have up to 21 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is 16 sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony that 17 are appropriately designated for protection within the 21 days shall be covered by the provisions of 18 this Stipulated Protective Order. Alternatively, a Designating Party may specify, at the deposition or 19 up to 21 days afterwards if that period is properly invoked, that the entire transcript shall be treated
20 as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

21 Parties shall give the other parties notice if they reasonably expect a deposition, hearing or 22 other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can ensure that only 23 authorized individuals who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
24 (Exhibit A) are present at those proceedings. The use of a document as an exhibit at a deposition
25 shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
26 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

Transcripts containing Protected Material shall have an obvious legend on the title page that the transcript contains Protected Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all pages (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material and the level of protection being asserted by the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall inform the court reporter of these requirements. Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 21-day period for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in its entirety unless otherwise agreed. After the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s) and specify the level of protection being asserted.

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

1 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process
2 by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each
3 challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must 4 recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph
5 of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must 6 begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication
7 are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging
8 Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and 9 must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 10 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen
11 designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it
12 has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 13 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

14 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
15 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Civil 16 Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the 17 initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process
18 will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a
19 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
20 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a 21 motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall 22 automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 23 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 24 good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any 25 portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a
26 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
27 requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

(a) the Receiving Party's Counsel (including Outside Counsel of Record in this action and House Counsel), as well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

(a) the Receiving Party’s Counsel (including Outside Counsel of Record in this action and House Counsel), as well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) Experts of the Receiving Party (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4(a)(2), below, have been followed;

(c) the court and its personnel;

(d) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and

(e) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

7.4 Procedures for Approving or Objecting to Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items to Experts.

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an Expert (as defined in this Order) any information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” pursuant to paragraph 7.3(b) first must make a written request to the Designating Party that (1) identifies the general categories of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information that the Receiving Party seeks permission to disclose to the Expert, (2) sets forth the full name of the Expert and the city and state of his or her primary residence, (3) attaches a copy of the Expert’s current resume, (4) identifies the Expert’s current employer(s), (5) identifies each person or entity from whom the Expert has received compensation or funding for work in his or her areas of expertise or to whom the expert has provided professional services, including in connection with a litigation, at any time during the preceding five years,¹ and (6) identifies (by name and number of the case, filing date, and location of court) any litigation in connection with which the Expert has offered expert testimony, including through a declaration, report, or testimony at a deposition or trial, during the preceding five years.

(b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in the preceding respective paragraphs may disclose the subject Protected Material to the identified Expert unless,

¹ If the Expert believes any of this information is subject to a confidentiality obligation to a third-party, then the Expert should provide whatever information the Expert believes can be disclosed without violating any confidentiality agreements, and the Party seeking to disclose to the Expert shall be available to meet and confer with the Designating Party regarding any such engagement.

1 within 14 days of delivering the request, the Party receives a written objection from the Designating
2 Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which it is based.

3 (c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer with the 4 Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by agreement
5 within seven days of the written objection. If no agreement is reached, the Party seeking to make the 6 disclosure to the Expert may file a motion as provided in Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with 7 Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) seeking permission from the court to do so. Any such motion
8 must describe the circumstances with specificity, set forth in detail the reasons why the disclosure to 9 the Expert is reasonably necessary, assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail, and 10 suggest any additional means that could be used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such motion
11 must be accompanied by a competent declaration describing the parties' efforts to resolve the matter
12 by agreement (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and setting forth
13 the reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.

14 In any such proceeding, the Party opposing disclosure to the Expert shall bear the burden of 15 proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards proposed)
16 outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Expert.

17 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER 18 LITIGATION

19 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
20 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 21 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" that Party must:

22 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of 23 the subpoena or court order;

24 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 25 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 26 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 27

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.²

If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

(a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

(b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

1. promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;
2. promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the information requested; and

² The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued.

1 3. make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

2 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14
3 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 4 Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely
5 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 6 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by 7 the court.³ Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 8 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

9 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

10 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected
11 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order,
12 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized
13 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c)
14 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 15 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to 16 Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

17 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
18 MATERIAL

19 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced
20 material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties
21 are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). If information is produced in 22 discovery that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial preparation material, the party
23 making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it.
24 After being notified, a party must promptly return or destroy the specified information and any 25 copies it has and may not sequester, use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. This

26 ³ The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of confidentiality
27 rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect its confidentiality
28 interests in this court.

1 includes a restriction against presenting the information to the court for a determination of the claim.
 2 This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
 3 order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of 4 Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a
 5 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection,
 6 the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

7 12. MISCELLANEOUS

8 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 9 its modification by the court in the future.

10 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order
 11 no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 12 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no
 13 Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by 14 this Protective Order.

15 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a 16 court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the 17 public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected
 18 Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal
 19 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant 20 to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the 21 Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to 22 protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant
 23 to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the Protected
 24 Material in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e)(2) unless otherwise instructed by 25 the court.

1 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

2 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each
 3 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
 4 As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,
 5 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 6 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written
 7 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party)
 8 by the 60-day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material
 9 that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies,
 10 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected
 11 Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all 12 pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda,
 13 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant
 14 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies
 15 that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 16 Section 4 (DURATION).
